Income Tax Withholding

Federal income tax withholding:

Withholding election for direct payments and systematic payments lasting less than 10 years:

There is a mandatory 20% withholding for federal income taxes. You may elect to withhold an additional percentage. If you wish to do so, please indicate this below.

- I wish to have an additional percentage of Federal Income Tax withheld. At time of submission a W-4R Federal Tax Withholding Form is required. The current Form W-4R form can be found on the IRS website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs-search.

NOTE: If we don't receive the Form W-4R, Nationwide will default to withholding taxes based on the current Internal Revenue Code (IRC) withholding rules.

Withholding election for systematic payments (including RMD payments) lasting 10 years or more:

For systematic payments lasting 10 years or more, federal income taxes are withheld at the current IRC withholding rules. For RMD payments, federal income taxes are withheld at the current default rate of 10% unless you elect otherwise. If you wish a different withholding percentage, please select one of the options listed below.

- I elect to opt-out of federal income tax withholding; 0% withholding
- I wish to have a different percentage of Federal Income Tax withheld. At time of submission a W-4P Federal Tax Withholding Form (systematic payments lasting 10 years or more) or the Form W-4R Federal Tax Withholding Form (RMD) is required. The current Form W-4P and Form W-4R can be found on the IRS website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs-search.

NOTE: If we don't receive the Form W-4P or W-4R, Nationwide will default to withholding taxes based on the current IRC withholding rules.

State income tax withholding: Taxes will be automatically withheld if you are a resident in a state that mandates state income tax withholding. If you would like to adjust your state taxes, please complete and attach a state tax withholding form. These forms can be obtained from the State website, Nationwide does not supply these forms.

Important Information

Late Contributions, Penalties, and Fees

- Contributions received after the effective date of this request will be returned to the participant.
- Distributions from rollover and Roth sources may be subject to an early withdrawal penalty.
- Some mutual funds may impose a short term trade fee. Please read the underlying prospectuses carefully.

Self-Directed Brokerage Account (SDBA)

If you have money in an SDBA and the requested amount of this distribution exceeds your core account balance, you will need to transfer funds back to the core account before your request can be processed. If you selected a systematic payment, you will need to maintain a sufficient balance in your core account to cover your elected amount.

Taxpayer ID Certification

NOTE: Backup withholding does not apply to retirement plan distributions. FATCA does not apply as this is a U.S. account.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The Taxpayer Identification Number or Social Security Number listed on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because:
 - a. I am exempt from backup withholding, or
 - b. I have not been notified that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or
 - c. The Internal Revenue Service has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person, and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Authorization

By signing this form, I understand and certify the following:

1. If I have an outstanding loan and I am requesting a total distribution of my account, the outstanding loan balance will be part of this total distribution and may be reported as taxable income to the IRS on form 1099-R. Any pending loan payments may delay the processing of this withdrawal.
2. Rollover contributions to governmental 457(b) plans that originated from qualified plans, IRAs and 403(b) plans are subject to the early distribution tax that applies to 401(a)/401(k) plans unless an exception applicable to 401(a)/401(k) plans applies.
3. Rollover contributions are subject to the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) rules of the plan they are rolled into, not the plan or IRA from which they came.
4. Federal income tax withholding will be reported on a form 1099-R.
5. The terms of the Plan Document will control the amount and timing of any payment from the Plan.
6. If I elect to receive this distribution before the end of the 30 day minimum notice period, my signature on this election form shall constitute a waiver of my rights to the 30 day notice requirement, if applicable.
7. I have received and read the 402(f) Special Tax Notice Regarding Plan Payments. This notice summarizes the federal (not state or local) tax rules which may apply to my distribution and explains how I can continue to defer federal income tax on my retirement plan savings in the Plan. It contains important information for me to review before I decide how to receive my Plan benefits.
8. I have not become re-employed prior to the distribution elected on this form and if I have elected a periodic payment option and I become re-employed, I will notify Nationwide that I am no longer eligible to receive the periodic payments.
9. The information contained herein is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
10. I authorize the distribution as elected above.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
